

Spiritual Poems

The poems emerged , while I was working on a chapter - EGO , for my new book. The moot question was , what is ego? Is ego my identity ? Who am I ? While going deeper on the subject, I realised that there is a far more powerful force , part of me , working inside me , working on my body and mind . Is it real "ego" Since its unknown force - I named it "you" . The following poems are to explore "I" and "you" ... read it, enjoy it and give me your feedback

YOU ARE A KING

I see you as a ruler

The king

What kind of a king are you?

You work alone

You don't have ministers

You don't have a constitution

You don't have any laws

You don't have any army , police

You don't collect any taxes

You don't seem to rule

Still you rule

What kind of a king are you?

You don't fight with the opposition

You only give,give AND give

You don't believe in divide and rule

You don't use the force to rule

No one is afraid of you

You don't hang anybody

You don't put any body in prision

You allow the free will to flow

Yet you rule so efficiently

I salute you and your way of functioning

YOU ARE A BUSINESSMAN

I see you as a businessman

What kind of a businessman are you

You only creat,produce and distribute

Your factory is so vast

Your production is so large

You distribution network is so huge

Yet , you seem to work alone

What kind of a bussiness man are you?

You distribute everything free

Your business modle is so unique

Yet you are so successful

I can see the endless supply

You don't cheat your clients

You provide them the best of the services

I salute you and your way of functioning

YOU ARE A WORKER

I see you as a worker

What kind of a worker are you?

You work , work and work

You have been working since ages

You will keep working till the end

You work so efficiently

You never even ask for any wages

You never ever complain of any poor working conditions

You never go on a strike

You work so quietly

You work so hard

You work with total honesty

You work alone

Yet you work so efficiently

I salute you and your way of functioning
